WINNERS

2025 - PREAKNESS STAKES FIELD

- # 1 GOAL ORIENTED – The most lightly race horse in the field, with only two lifetime starts, but has won both, including an allowance race victory on Derby Day at Churchill Downs. His trainer Bob Baffert is the all-time leader with 8 Preakness wins. Jockey Flavien Prat, who won this race in 2021 with Rombauer, will ride this one for the first time.
- # 2 JOURNALISM - Raced very well in the Derby, finishing second behind Sovereignty as the race favorite. He has bounced out of that race well and will try to match his sire Curlin, who won this race in 2007 . He will attempt to become just the fourth Derby runner-up since 1960 to win the Preakness, and the first since Exaggerator in 2016 .
- # 3 AMERICAN PROMISE - This year’s Virginia Derby winner was bumped at the start in the Run For the Roses, then made an early move into contention before tiring to finish 16th. Goes out for 89 year old D.Wayne Lukas, who trained last year’s Preakness champ Seize The Grey.
- # 4 HEART OF HONOR - Based in England, this horse has made 5 of his 6 lifetime starts in Dubai, and comes into this race off three consecutive runner-up finishes in stakes races there. The trainer jockey combination of Jamie Osborne and his 23 year old daughter Saffie, will attract attention as she becomes only the 4th female to ride in the Preakness.
- # 5 PAY BILLY - The local hope, he has registered all four of his career victories in the state of Maryland, including a game win in the Federico Tesio Stakes at Laurel on April 19th.
- # 6 RIVER THAMES - Has run very well in both stakes tries, including a neck loss to Sovereignty in the Fountain of Youth, and a third place finish in the Bluegrass. He’s trained by Todd Pletcher (0 for 10) who is seeking his first win in this race. He is also trying to become the first New York-bred to win the Preakness since Funny Cide in 2003.
- # 7 SANDMAN – Has garnered a great deal of publicity, due to the fact that he is owned by a group which includes popular social media influencer Griffin Johnson (over 14 million followers). The attractive gray colt finished 7th in the Kentucky Derby after a wide trip from Post 15.
- # 8 CLEVER AGAIN -Lightly-raced 3 year old son of Triple Crown Champ American Pharoah has made only three career starts, but won the Hot Springs Stakes at Oaklawn last time out for North America’s All-time leading trainer Steve Asmussen. Will be ridden by Jose Ortiz, who won this race in 2022 with Early Voting.
- # 9 GOSGER - Made his stakes debut with a victory in the Lexington Stakes at Keeneland last month in only his third career start. The gray-roan colt, named after a journeyman Major League baseball player, is trained by Irish -born conditioner Brendan Walsh.
