

BELMONT @ AQUEDUCT (1:10)

By David Aragona / KEVIN COX

1st Going to give a slight edge to #5 EVIE'S PRINCE, based on the fact that he had a solid lead in the stretch before losing the rider the only time he went from a flat event to the jumps, along with having been a part of the superfecta in 15 of his last 17 starts when the jockey has stayed aboard. #3 ZARAK THE BRAVE enters today off a well clear runnerup finish in the Jonathan Sheppard, and will likely take some pounding at the windows. #8 WELSHMAN got a confidence building win when last seen at the end of August, and the fact that he was ridden out despite scoring by open lengths tells us that Fisher had this race in mind all the time.

Race 2 2 TOXIC GIRL has never run a race as fast as the likely favorites in here, but she is getting back to what she seemingly does best, routing on dirt; has recently experimented with turf and turning back to sprint distances; actually some signs of improved form last time when staying on at 6F after losing some early position; now gets back to the right distance, and should be a fair price for lower profile connections. 8 YO LEVEN will be a handful if she can get back into form here; was pretty disappointing when last seen here in June, but she just never looked comfortable over a sloppy track that day; now drops to a realistic level and gets a massive rider upgrade to Flavien Prat. 1 SPIRIT OF ESTHER has run well on both dirt and turf in the past, making her last couple of performances pretty concerning; wasn't really persevered with on turf race last time; still has to prove that she remains capable of competitive efforts.

Third Race Turning back to a sprint distance should suit 8 PATIENCE N GRACE,** Best Bet ** who showed some promise on debut when passing over half the field with a rail rally; wasn't quite as effective last time, but winner Material Girl is better than anything she's facing here, and she also seemed to struggle getting a mile after a wide trip; has had some time off since then, but returns with blinkers after training well in that equipment this summer at the Spa. 5 SUNSHINE LILY had a legitimate excuse when last seen finishing up the track at Saratoga, as she stumbled very badly at the start; had run well over this course and distance prior to that, and looks pretty logical . 8-5-7

Race 4 #4 INNATE has been extremely sharp in both starts this year, after returning off an 11 1/2 month hibernation, as he is but a nose shy of having a two for two record in 2025. Barn switches to a jockey they have done good things with over the last couple of years, and gelding could be sitting on another good effort in today's third start off the pine. #3 FELTRINELLI hasn't been seen in a couple of Bijou's birthdays, but returns with Lasix added and as a first time gelding. Note that his only start off an absence yielded a gutsy victory right here. #8 BOSUN shoots for the hat trick today, with improved speed figures over his last three tries.

Race 5 #9 FRAUDSTER improved by leaps and bounds when going over the green nearly three fortnights back, and as this one went for eight times the stud fee at Ocala a half a year back, one would have to think he's been well meant along. #2 PAMPERED came along belatedly to complete the super when getting her working papers up in the Adirondacks, and slides in six slots off of that effort. #10 ISADORA DUNCAN has fantastic pedigree for the weeds, and could be any kind.

Race 6 #4 O P FIRECRACKER is halved in price after being claimed for a double sawbuck two back, and found the line first in and identical placement just before the pair of recent disappointments. Sensible selection. #2 BOLD ENDEAVOR had no palpable excuse for the flopola last out, but was a reclaim from the prior trainer that day, and the two of them teamed up for a 5:2-2-0 mark together. Check earning sort will not be able to ply his trade on this circuit in a few months, because of a silly rule in place banning ten year olds. #7 LAUGHING BOY finds himself at his lowest level to date in this, is 41st start, and 7YO makes all kind of sense.

Race 7 #5 LINARITE was made available for purchase for the first time in nearly two years last out, and ended up in a different barn after another check collecting effort. After being kept in jail, new shot caller puts a right up for sale once again, and this mare owns a 7:1-3-2-1 record with claiming company. Mild choice in a race with just one first draft elimination. #1 STRICTLY TABOO comes in today off a lifetime best figaro, and as that came at this level, who's to say a repeat isn't doable once again. #2 KERRY outperformed her expectations solidly enough when placing directly behind the above in their recent encounter, and we see no reason to dismiss.

Race 8 #5 BEFORE THE WIND has the best overall body of work in the field, as this fella has partaken in the super in his last three, and accomplished such despite not being favored in any of those events. Despite having blinkers added last out, he encountered a decent amount of trouble with about a quarter of a mile left in a race, and deserves a chance to make amends today. #6 OAT COUTOUR is another steady sort who was a lively runnerup finisher the only time he went long on the lawn, and we like this one's ability to send or rate a bit. #1 INSPEIGHTOFCHARLIE isn't particularly well bred for this surface, but slides in four post positions while having blinkers on for the first time.

PHILLY'S FINEST

A daily aid to handicapping the races at Harrah's Philadelphia

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2025

"TROT TIN' THURSDAY" ... WITH LITTLE BROWN JUG PACERS ON THE SIMULCAST

Today's live presentation here at Harrah's Philadelphia is firmly in the top-quality "Trottin' Thursdays" pattern that our fans have come to know, what with a $13,500 feature for developing horses (race thirteen) and two $12,000 events for horses one notch below (races three and six), along with fast-class trotters at two lofty levels of competition (in race ten for $13,000 in a handicap event, and for $11,000 in race nine) .... We are also simulcasting the Little Brown Jug card today from the Delaware (OH) Fair, where LOUPRINT is scheduled at press time to head the glamour division three-year-old pacing colts.

PHILLY'S FINEST

Race 1	6-8-4-1
Race 2	5-2-1-3
Race 3	6-3-5-8
Race 4	6-7-8-2
Race 5	1-5-6-3
Race 6	8-2-5-1
Race 7	7-5-6-1
Race 8	8-3-1-2
Race 9	7-4-2-3
Race 10	3-4-5-6
Race 11	4-7-8-1
Race 12	3-5-1-7
Race 13	2-6-8-4
Race 14	7-3-4-5
Race 15	4-3-2-6

ANALYSIS OF KEY RACES

3rd race: MESSENGER HANOVER may not have the highest win percentage in 2025, but he has a pair of seconds against Stallion Series opposition (including in the Championship) and a photo defeat at this level. And nobody has been going too far wrong picking Ron Burke horses lately. Has the speed to be right there.

6th race: We try for a bit of a price here with LEXUS LEGACY, who comes from the barn of (guess who). After being victorious in his farewell in Canada, he won immediately joining the Brigade, made a break, then came from behind in a fast mile and was a decent fourth. Herschberger may be forward-bound early in this field.

7th race: We are going to forgive MY PAL KELLY for his last start -- he sat in third, then was trapped along the pylons nearing headstretch, had to wait to angle for inside stretch clearance last time, and sacrificed any momentum to the outer tier horses. Shows a win vs. slightly better. Might try leaving from the outside -- hoping for a decent price.

10th race: Off 19 days, SUPER DUPER COOPER was uncovered from fifth from the second turn, then resolutely put pressure on the leader and came up just shy, going his own back half in :56.2. The horse who beat him has the outside here. Our pick is versatile, and may work himself out a much better journey.

WATCH OUT FOR:

Live racing at Philly continues with a Friday card at 12:25 and a Sunday program at 12:40; in between those two cards is a super card at Woodbine Mohawk on Saturday, which fans will be able to watch and wager on -- many of the sport's top stars will be racing. ... Closer to home, we find that a horse claimed from a high-win barn often gets underbet in his first start for new connections. Some horses do do better for certain winning trainers -- that's why they're winning trainers -- but horses departing those barns usually retain their sharpness for their next start, and sometimes they are overlooked. Worth a second glance.

WOODBINE (5:30)

Handicapper's Journal – Doug McPherson
Thursday, September 18th 2025

Race 1

#6 Armino

#2 Night Striker

#1 Arrakasta Izan

#4 Uphill Road

#6 ARMINO has run two good seconds since moving to this barn. He drops back in $10,000 after moving up to the $15,000 level and should be tough. #2 NIGHT STRIKER led in late stretch but was run down late when beaten a half-length on the inner turf on August 23. Professional maiden has had decent synthetic races; tough to pick on top at this point. #1 ARRAKASTA IZAN was a half-length behind Armino when finishing third for this price on August 22. He has not missed a check in Tapeta routes this year. #4 UPHILL ROAD has not shown much in two tries on the inner turf. He drops in for $10,000 and adds lasix for his Tapeta debut! Typical

Race 2

#7 Stealin'time - Best Bet

#1 Citori

#6 Unheard

#2 Reach for the Top

#7 STEALIN'TIME made her seasonal debut on August 31, rallying to be third over this course and distance. She drops in for $25,000 and should be tough with a start under her belt. #1 CITORI was unable to hold off Party On when finishing 1 ¾ lengths ahead of Stealin'time on August 31. Rapid mare is in very good form and is a big threat to wire them. #6 UNHEARD was up late to win her non-two over this course and distance on August 30. She is not without a chance to double up. #2 REACH FOR THE TOP dueled on the lead and emptied out when trying the EP Taylor course against OS/$40,000 foes on August 15. She is more likely to be stalking at this distance; we'll see how she likes the inner course.

Race 3

#9 Springer

#7 Spiritual Man

#3 Temple Hall

#1 Switchin' to Glide

#9 SPRINGER did not have a great trip and came up empty in a turf route on August 1 but was second behind repeat-winner Backonthechaingang when sprinting on the synthetic two-back. He is a rebound threat on the class drop. #7 SPIRITUAL MAN dueled on the lead but tired when facing $25,000 foes on September 5, finishing fifth. He has had a couple of okay races and should appreciate the drop in for $15,000. #3 TEMPLE HALL came to a stop when trying a turf route on August 1, the same race that Springer exits. He has had some good Tapeta efforts; blinkers are being added. #1 SWITCHIN' TO GLIDE showed nothing on debut but came back to run a decent third for $10,000 on July 25; we'll see what he does in his first start in nearly two months.

Race 4

#9 Googly Eyes

#2 Ondine Lady

#7 Gizmo's B F F

#1 Forest B

#9 GOOGLY EYES raced well to be third while attracting a claim in November but wise sidelined after and now returns. Consistent check-earner is capable at any distance and should have pace to run at; we'll see if she's ready to fire. #2 ONDINE LADY stalked the pace, took the on the turn and was able to hold off next-out winner Candid Candace when winning her non-three for this price on August 21. She has been in terrific form and should have plenty of confidence as she graduates to wide-open company. #7 GIZMO'S B F F was pressed on the lead while trying to slow down the early fractions and kept on very well to be third by ¾ lengths at this level on August 31; she has not been worse than third in six starts this year. #1 FOREST B dropped in for this price and ran a very game second in a five furlong sprint behind Quiet Maddelena on August 31; we'll see if she's more forwardly placed stretching out a furlong.

Race 5

#7 Wicked Mercury

#6 Come to Mama

#2 Super Sicily

#4 Verdejo

#7 WICKED MERCURY had a rough start but rallied very well to be third around two turns on the inner turf while attracting a $15,000 claim on August 21. She has a tremendous synthetic record, hitting the top three in 13 of 15 starts on the surface and never finishing worse than fifth. #6 COME TO MAMA has performed very well on the synthetics at Turfway and Presque Isle. She closed well after a slow start to be fifth by three lengths in an N2X/$32,000 on the Delaware turf on August 30; should be competitive here. #2 SUPER SICILY was closing a bit while very wide in a five furlong inner turf dash on August 29, was but was run down by a head after setting the pace at this level two-back. She should be happy to get back to the main track. #4 VERDEJO was claimed back by this barn for $32,000 on July 19 and now returns with a drop in for $25,000. She has been breezing well and is always running on in the stretch.)

Race 6

#4 Trip Aces

#1 Big Screen Boss

#3 Thor's Cause

#2 Pocket Speed

#4 TRIP ACES tried off the pace tactics when racing on the inner turf on August 3, hitting some traffic on the turn but rallying to be fifth. He hooked tough company in his last couple of synthetic starts, should be very tough on the drop in for $40,000. #1 BIG SCREEN BOSS has had three second and a close fourth in his four starts to date. He has had wide trips and now draws the inside for his route debut. #3 THOR'S CAUSE put in a game effort to be beaten a half-length on the inner turf on August 24. He has been picking up checks and figures to be in the hunt again. #2 POCKET SPEED was in contention but was outfinished when finishing third as the favourite 13 days ago; we'll see how he likes the stretch out to a route.

Race 7

#8 Rock Hard Rose

#2 Balls in Ur Court

#6 Tentomidnight

#10 Strike a Note

#11 Uncarrick Teristic

#8 ROCK HARD ROSE was forced wide on the first turn and came up empty when trying the inner turf for $25,000 on August 16. She continues to drop but gets back to a main track sprint. #2 BALLS IN UR COURT set the pace and was loose in mid stretch but was run down by Kimberlina when favoured on the drop in for this tag on August 30; speed threat. #6 TENTOMIDNIGHT chases the pace and emptied out when racing for $25,000 on August 29. She drops back in and could be more competitive here. #10 STRIKE A NOTE had to check at the break and never really got involved when debuting for $25,000 on August 29; we'll see if she can take a step forward with a start under her belt. #11 UNCARRICK TERISTIC has been on the edges in both of her starts to date and looks like a fringe player again.

PERFECT PLAY

Race 7, #5 Chillin Bythe Pool

Meadowlands shipper pulled the upset in her last, but won't offer value here. Moves to a tougher spot, but has been in form, showing a win over the 5/8ths at Harrah's PHL three starts back. Expect an aggressive drive.

PRICE PLAY

Race 2, #8 Dark Hour

Bettor's Wish gelding returns to the level of his last win after being severely overmatched in his last few. Should offer value with Top Tier drawn well. As good as any here. Just needs the trip.

Lee's Lock

Race 7

(#4) Apollitical Poker was beaten only a neck, while well clear of third, in a strong second-place finish at Retama, and a similar effort likely wins this race.

Best Bet

Race 5

(#4) Sha Cari V was narrowly defeated in an unusually talented allowance at Delta, and she picks up a top rider.

Best Longshot

Race 3

(#4) Buchanan 747 was a clear maiden allowance winner two races back, and returns to a preferred distance tonight.
